SILENT AUCTION

Visit the Native American Scholarships Committee (NASC) Booth 809 in the Exhibit Hall, Exhibit Hall A, to place your bids while contributing to a worthy cause. How does the silent auction work? First, sign up for a bidder number at the NASC booth. Then, when you see something you want, decide how much you'd like to spend and write your bid and bidder number on the bid sheet. Of course, once others see your bid, they might decide to make an offer, as well. So, you'll have to stop by the booth from time to time to see if your bid is still the highest. If not, raise it, and keep on trying. The bidding ends Saturday at noon.

SMOKING POLICY

Smoking is prohibited.

Ethics BowlDate: Thursday, April 12, 2018Time: 1:00 pm–3:00 pmLocation: Lincoln 2

The Ethics Bowl, which debuted at the 2004 meeting, is a festive, debate-style competition that explores the ethics of archaeological practice.

Presidential Sponsored ForumTitle: Bears Ears, the Antiquities Act, and the Status of our National MonumentsOrganizer: William DoelleDate: Thursday, April 12, 2018Time: 3:00 pm–5:00 pmLocation: Marriott Salon 2

The Antiquities Act of 1906 has been an amazingly effective tool for the landscape-scale protection of cultural and natural resources in the United States. Crafted by archaeologist Edgar Lee Hewett, in consultation with Representative Lacy of Iowa, the bill was signed into law by President Theodore Roosevelt on June 8, 1906. Roosevelt immediately went to work. When he left office in 1909, he had made proclamations to establish 18 national monuments in 9 western states. In subsequent years 15 additional presidents, of both political parties, used the Antiquities Act to establish national monuments that number over 150 and total nearly 250 million acres. Until the Bears Ears National Monument proclamation by President Obama on December 28, 2016, there has never been a national monument effort where Native Americans took the lead. For Bears Ears, it was a coalition of five tribes that took the leadership role. Archaeologists were there as supporters as well. When Donald Trump was sworn in as the nation's 45th president, more than a century of preservation efforts under the Antiquities Act came under severe threat. This Forum brings together historical, tribal, government, and up-to-the-moment perspectives on the Antiquities Act through the case study of Bears Ears.
